About Pamela:

Pamela educates and coaches individuals and groups through books, workshops, seminars and money coaching programs. She is dedicated to using positive words to transform men and women to experience living success and financial empowerment.

She is the award-winning author of Financial Empowerment: Realign Your Finances to God's Will and is a Certified Financial Education Instructor. Her audiences are impacted by her engaging, challenging and inspiring messages which move them to take action.

In this award-winning title, Pamela examines the issues and misconceptions most experience in their finances and provides help with Biblical and practical solutions.

Financial Empowerment is the road map to personal and spiritual growth, financial well-being and a lifetime of empowerment through Godly principles.

"Pamela engaged her audience, interacted with them at a real level. She made the topic area easy to understand and motivated us to take action on what we had learned."
