Stop Allowing Money To Control You

What's your "love affair" with money? Do you realise that your emotions, your story, your influencers, your lifestyle, your personality all have an impact on not only how you manage your money but how much of it you have?

In her signature speech, Master Your Money: Take Control of Your Mone'motions, Pamela shares her money journey from worry and stress to trust and peace in God. In her walk with God, she learned over time how to involve God in her money management process and how to make sound financial decisions without negative emotions getting in the way. You will not want to miss this informative and life-changing talk about how you can take control of your money – not only how to manage but how to increase it!

About Pamela:

Pamela educates and coaches individuals and groups through books, workshops, seminars and money coaching programs. She is dedicated to using positive words to transform men and women to experience living success and financial empowerment.

She is the award-winning author of Financial Empowerment: Realign Your Finances to God's Will and is a Certified Financial Education Instructor. Her audiences are impacted by her engaging, challenging and inspiring messages which move them to take action.

Call Pamela today at 246-828-5397 to speak at your next event!

In this award-winning title, Pamela examines the issues and misconceptions most experience in their finances and provides help with Biblical and practical solutions.

Financial Empowerment is the road map to personal and spiritual growth, financial well-being and a lifetime of empowerment through Godly principles.

"Pamela explained how we make money decisions more on emotion rather than on a disciplined approach. She gave strategies to help the attendees better manage their finances."
